HOLLAND'S PLAYERS HAD NO USE FOR BATS AGAINST MR. LAMBETH

A Native Kansan Gives Topeka the First No-Hit Game of the Season.

If Manager Engle only had a few more pitchers of the Otis Lambeth type the task he has undertaken of putting Topeka back in the running for the Western league pennant would be an easy task.

Lambeth, a native Kansan, easily earned the title of Topeka's best twirler—and that of one of the most promising youngsters in the league—in the fourth game of the St. Joe series which he won by the score of 4 to 0 after having held the Joes hitless for nine long innings.

The Joes would have played just as good a game and they would have had just as much luck if they had thrown every bat they owned into the Shunganunga before they started the game. They would have gotten just as many hits and just as many scores and would have saved themselves the unnecessary exertion of trying to do the impossible—hit Lambeth's offerings.

22d Herr of the St. Louis Cardinals and Chick Frazier of the Pittsburgh Pirates, both big league heavy hitters, were in the grandstand looking over Lambeth, and the way he "just mowed 'em down" must have made them have a pretty good impression of him when the last Drummer grounded out without anything that resembled a hit having been made.

First of Season.
It was the first no-hit performance of a Topeka pitcher this season and, although it was not the first no-hit game of the league, it was the first by a young pitcher just on the threshold of his career. The only other game of its kind here was that hung up by Koestner of Wichita on May 13 when he let the Savages down without a scratch.

Lambeth, however, pitched a much better game than the once youthful Koestner. He struck out seven batters while Koestner only struck out six, and he only walked two to Koestner's five. Koestner made only two assists while Lambeth made three and started a double play.

Few Features.
Aside from Lambeth's pitching, there were few features to the game. The new Savage lineup with Engle on third, Goodwin on second and Tydemann in the right field garden did not look bad. Engle's presence in the infield, his wide-awake leadership and his stabilizing influence made the team look more like a real team than it ever has. Also, Goodwin looked more at home on second than at third or short and the switch seemed to improve his batting, as he got three singles out of four attempts.

In some mysterious manner Engle seems to touch off the spark of life in all of the players and there was more pep and punch in the team Monday than has ever been shown.

The First Score.
The game rocked along from the start to the fifth inning without either team having connected with a single blow. But in the fifth Goodwin cracked the shell of Mr. J. Williams for the first time, and in the next round the Savages broke through with their first run. In the first of the sixth Agler fanned and Schweitzer walked. Kruger drew out and Schweitzer stole second. Then Engle kissed a hot drive to left and Schweitzer counted. Tydemann also singled, but Engle made the third out trying to get to third.

The other three Savages runs came in the following inning. Cochran and Goodwin singled and Monroe was safe on J. Williams' error. Cochran scoring. Lambeth fanned and Agler was given a premeditated walk. Schweitzer forced Goodwin at the plate, but Kruger poked one to center that scored Agler and Monroe.

Allen Put Out.
Pitcher Allen was put out of the game in the fifth frame when he was kicked on a third strike and had the audacity to tickle Eckman in the ribs for calling it. However, Monroe went in with a fresh hair cut and a shampoo and he carried Lambeth to his ultimate triumph in great style.

This afternoon's game will return the series. Tomorrow will be an off day, and Thursday a series will be begun at Wichita. The team will return on the third of July for the big holiday series with Denver.

It has been announced that Josh Devore, former National league outfielder who has been the American association this spring, has been signed by the local management and that he will join the club at Wichita. The taking on of Devore indicates that two of the present outfielders are slated to slide elsewhere.

Release Two Pitchers.
Wichita, Kan., June 27.—Manager Jimmy Jackson of the Wichita club has announced the unconditional release of Earl Flaherty and Emil Liston, pitchers. Flaherty is a veteran while Liston was a try-out, coming to the Wichita club from the Kemper Military academy, where he is athletic director.

THE NO-HIT PERFORMANCE OF OTIS LAMBETH MONDAY

The no-hit victory hung up by Otis Lambeth has done a great deal to reawaken interest in the Savages among local fans. Being the first no-hit victory for a Topeka pitcher in quite a spell, it is natural that it should be given much consideration by the conversationalists. Here are the exact statistics on the performance:

No. of men who faced him..... 20.
No. who reached first..... 4.
No. who reached second..... 1.
No. who reached third..... 0.
No. struck out..... 7.
No. walked..... 2.
No. hit by pitched ball..... 1.
Lambeth also had three assists, started the only double play of the game and had an assist on the last batter in the ninth inning.

MUTT & JEFF—Everybody Should Have Two Vacations a Year of Six Months Each—

NOTICE!

WHERE AS EVERYBODY IS ENTITLED TO A VACATION AT LEAST ONCE A YEAR AND WHERE AS THERE IS NO BETTER TIME TO TAKE ONE THAN IN THE SUMMER, WE HEREBY DECLARE WAR ON WORK AND HOP TO THE MERRY OLD YEARLY LOAFING PERIOD. ROCKEFELLER DON'T WORK SO WHY SHOULD WE. JUST WHERE WE ARE GOING WE DON'T KNOW. WE MAY GO WHERE A LOT OF OTHER GUYS MAY SPEND THEIR SUMMER, IN MEXICO. THEN AGAIN WE MAY SIMPLY GO TO CALIFORNIA AND SHOOT WILD GOATS. SHOOTING MEXICANS IS MORE EXCITING FOR THEY CAN RUN FASTER AND ARE MORE NUMEROUS. BE THAT AS IT MAY, WE WILL BE BACK IN THE PAPERS AGAIN VERY SOON SO DON'T FORGET US.

STILL A PITCHER

Fred Beebe, N. L. Castoff, Shuts Out White Sox.

Christy Mathewson Gets Credit for Another Win.

Monday's hero—Fred Beebe, former Cub hurler and discard of three other National league clubs, whose return to the big leagues as an Indian caused the downfall of the White Sox. The veteran twirler shut out the Hosts, two to nothing, allowing three hits. Earl Hamilton of the Browns, was jolted from the box by the Tigers in the seventh. His old teammates showed him little sympathy.

The Senators and Yanks engaged in an eleven inning slugfest match. The Senators won when McBride made his first hit of the day, a double, scoring Williams.

Red Sox Pitchers Weak.
Five pitchers were pitted against the Athletics by the Red Sox, but Shore was the only one to stick and he was there only one inning. The Mackmen won 8 to 5.

Howe of the Athletics and Ruth of the Red Sox were the only pinch hitters to produce hits.

The Reds finally won a game from the Cards. However it took eleven innings.

Christy Mathewson made his appearance in the first game of a double between the Giants and Brooklyn just enough to get credit for winning another game.

The Dodgers took the second game after a twelve inning pitching duel between Marquard and Benton.
